ExamNotes AI

Sub Topics

0 Topics:
• [object Object]

1 Topics:
• [object Object]

2 Topics:
• [object Object]

3 Topics:
• [object Object]

4 Topics:
• [object Object]

5 Topics:
• [object Object]

Revision Points

• HTML tags form the page structure.
• CSS selectors target elements for styling.
• JavaScript adds interactivity.
• HTTP request/response cycle is core to web.
• Use <link> to include external CSS.
• Use <script> to include JavaScript.
• Responsive design uses media queries.
• Domain name links to server IP.
• FTP uploads files to host.
• Always close tags properly.

Important Questions

Short Questions:
• What does HTML stand for?
• Name one CSS property that changes text color.
• Which tag is used to create a hyperlink?
• What is the purpose of the <script> tag?
• Explain the HTTP request response cycle in one sentence.
• Which media query breakpoint is used for mobile devices?

Long Questions:
• Explain the structure of a basic HTML document and describe the purpose of each main section.
• Discuss how CSS can be used to create a responsive layout, including the role of media queries.

• Describe how JavaScript can interact with HTML elements to create dynamic content.
• Outline the steps involved in publishing a website from local development to a live server.

Diagram Question:

Draw a flowchart showing the steps from a user entering a URL to the web page being displayed in the browser.